THE HEROINE

Role: Leader of the Protectors

Realm Origin: Unknown

Age: 25

Raya Sol is the protagonist of Terra Nova. She was orphaned as an infant, and was found by a caring elderly couple. To her foster parents' surprise, she was a fast learner and excelled in everything she set out to do. She exhibited skill and intelligence that was just way beyond her age. As a teenager, Raya experienced small occurrences of telekinesis and telepathy, which she kept hidden from everyone. After graduating from school early, Raya wanted to train as a warrior. Though her parents were reluctant to allow this they eventually gave their consent. There was no point in debating the idea for Raya was always determined to follow her aspirations and see them through to the end.

Presently, Raya has become a loner and stays mostly to herself. The constant interrogation of the townspeople weighs heavily on her spirit. The day of Raya's arrival on the bank of the river is the same day that Lucius's beasts appeared to attack the lands. The townspeople believe that the two events coincide. They question her skills and wonder if she is one of Lucius's creations waiting for the perfect attack.

Even after saving many of the townspeople's lives, they are still unsure if Raya's intentions are pure. "She's just trying to gain our trust so she can attack us when we're weakest," is the average mentality. Raya insists that she has no correlation with the darkness invading their land. Some challenge that it will take tens of thousands of saved novan lives to prove she is not in alliance with Lucius.

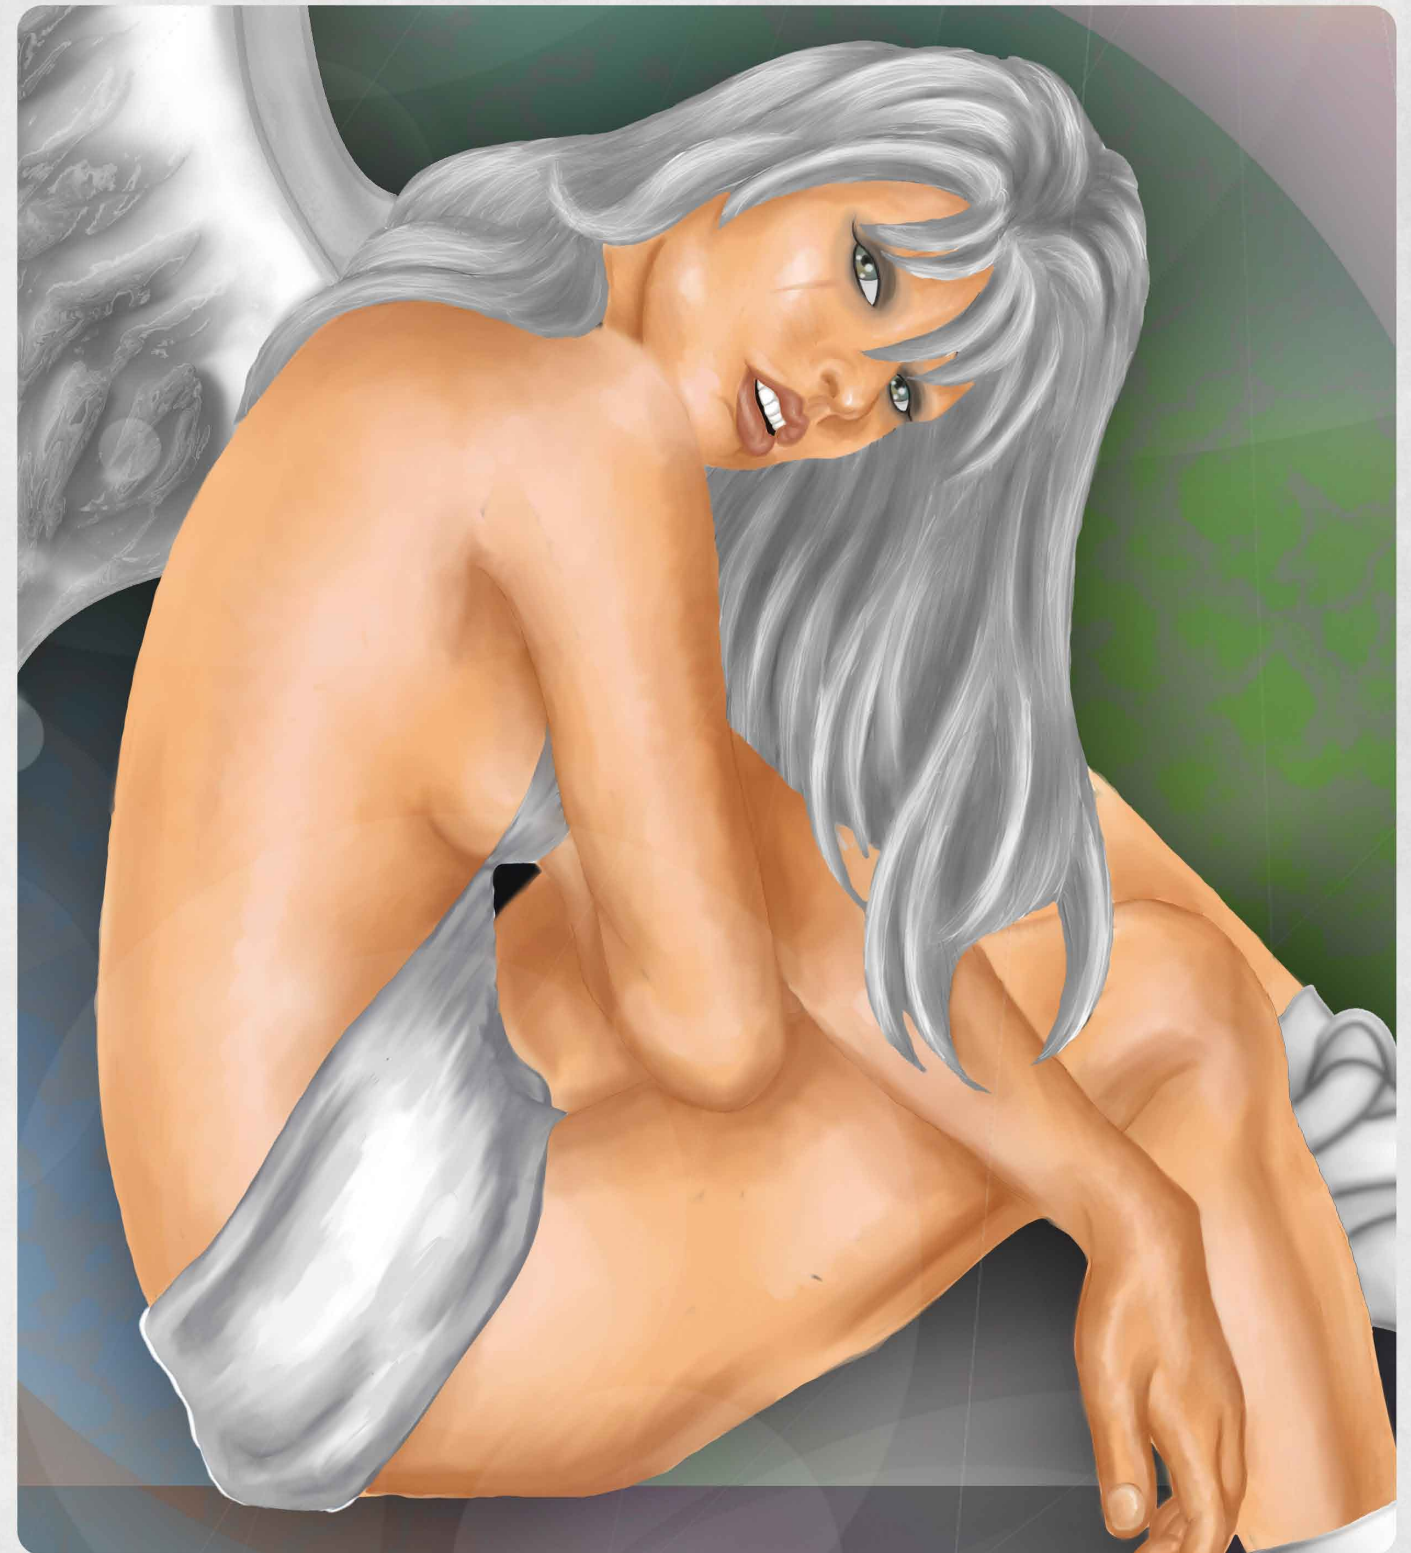

Raya is currently set on a journey to save the Entities, create an alliance with the Protectors, and bring down this tyranny of evil with a fight to the death.
